CALL OFF FEATURES

Poor Card Is Offered at the Fair Grounds.

FIVE EVENTS IN HARD RAIN

Storm Plays Havoc with Program

Offered at the New Orleans Track.

Favorite Players Refuse to Daily.

With the Majority of the First Choices Defeated—Other Results.

New Orleans, Feb. 28.—The card at the Fair Grounds was all but put out of business by the numerous scratches and the declaring off of feature events. Everything was scratched away from the Ellison entry. In order to make seven races, the closing event, a selling affair at one and one-quarter miles, was split.

Five of the seven events were run through a heavy rain, and at times it was almost impossible to distinguish the horses in the turn. Favorite players did not lay up much money, as the majority of choices were beaten.

THE SUMMARIES.

RACING AT OAK LAWN AS USUAL

Management Ignores Law Against Pool Selling in Arkansas.

Hot Springs, Feb. 28.—Notwithstanding the fact that the Amis bill became a law yesterday afternoon, which prohibited pool selling on horse racing within the State limits, betting under the old method continued uninterrupted this afternoon.

Dan Stuart, chief executive of Oak Lawn, being asked for an expression, said:

"We will test the validity of the Amis bill; in the meantime Oak Lawn will continue just as if there was no adverse legislation."

Mike Sutton, the heavily-backed publicist, entered the fourth, and the day's feature, in very impressive style from Merrick and Calabasas. Summaries:

FIRST RACE—Three-year-olds; colts and geldings; four furlongs. Brawley Lad, 105 (W. Walker), 2 to 1; Prince Bowling, 109 (Seder), 3 to 1; second, Ben Sand, 111 (Mitchell), 13 to 1; third, Time, 123 1/2. EXPECT STAHL BACK

Owners Think That Big Salary Will Fetch ex-Manager.

ANDERSON IS NOW SATISFIED

President Noyes Denies Report That the Left Fielder Is Holding Out Because of Alleged Unfair Treatment at Hands of Local Club—Nothing New in the Transfer of Joe Stanley.

President Tom Noyes, of the Washington ball team, returned from the New York meeting yesterday morning confident that Jake Stahl will reconsider his determination to retire from baseball rather than play in this city.

According to President Noyes, the whole trouble with Stahl is that he has held out from the local team because he expected a big cut in salary, but now that the Washington club has made him an offer of $4,000 for next season the board of strategy believes that there will be little difficulty in getting the ex-manager to sign.

President Noyes took occasion to deny the report that John Anderson was dissatisfied with his berth in Washington. Several weeks ago Anderson's contract, calling for the same salary as last year, was sent to Worcester, and although he has not yet signed, no trouble is expected with the big left fielder. Anderson is at present busily engaged in completing a home which he started last fall, but Canton believes that John will be in line when the team leaves Chicago Monday for Galveston to begin the preliminary work.

There was no news in the report published in a local paper Tuesday concerning the transfer of Joe Stanley to Louisville. As a matter of fact, Stanley was transferred to Tebeau, owner of the Kansas City and Louisville clubs when Washington got Perlie last fall.

Lave Cross, the Nationals' third baseman, arrived in Washington yesterday from the farm. Lave Cross, who will remain here until Sunday, when he expects to go to Chicago to join Cantillon for the trip to Galveston.

MIDDIES HAVE BIG DATES

Will Play Yale, Harvard, Cornell, Columbia, and Dartmouth.

Annual Game with the Future Soldiers Is Set for May 18 at West Point—The Schedule.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 28.—Chauncey E. Pugh, of Utica, N. Y., manager of the Midshipmen's baseball team, has completed the schedule of games for the coming season. The principal game, that with the military cadets of West Point, will be played May 18. It will be played at West Point, last year's game having been played in Annapolis, the agreement being to play alternately at Annapolis and West Point.

Among the big college teams to be played are Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Columbia, and Dartmouth. It will be the first time that Dartmouth has ever played here. One of the interesting features will be the presence of the Harvard baseball team during the week of April 12 to 19 for spring practice. One game with the middies has been arranged for April 15, but it is probable that a second contest will be had with Gallaudet. It is the only Washington institution on the schedule. The complete schedule follows:

March 23, St. John's College of Annapolis; March 25, Columbia University; March 28, Yale; March 30, Cornell; April 6, Gallaudet (deaf-mute), of Washington, D. C.; April 8, Virginia Military Institute; April 11, Dartmouth; April 12, Johns Hopkins University; April 23, University of Georgia; April 25, St. John's College; April 27, Maryland Athletic Club; May 1, Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina; May 2, Randolph-Macon College; May 4, Wake Forest College; May 5, University of Pennsylvania; May 8, Washington State; May 10, Princeton; May 11, Princeton College; May 18, West Point at West Point.

WANTS INTERCOLLEGIATES.

New Haven Has Seating Capacity for Spectators and Hotels for Athletes.

New Haven, Feb. 28.—That Yale athletic officials make an attempt next year to get the intercollegiate games for the Yale field was made known last night. Yale has an excellent track, which is a prime requisite. The seating capacity of the field could very easily be enlarged, and an addition could be put on to the track house to accommodate the athletes at no very great expense.

One of the strong objections to a city of the size of New Haven has been its lack of hotel accommodations. This objection might readily be overcome by opening the Pequot Hotel at Morris Cove, where sleeping accommodations and training tables for 200 men could easily be secured. The place is ideally situated, away from the noise of the city, and yet within easy distance of the field by special cars, which could run from the city to the field without change. It is in the plans of the future to present Yale's claims to the intercollegiate on her own grounds.

DOWN THE ALLEYS.

Spaldings Won at Roller Polo.

Spaldings won at the Park team last night in one of the best games of roller polo ever played at the rink by 3 to 2. Woodward and Goldsmith played strong games.
